

I would object vigorously to weakening our do not call option. In fact I still get unwanted calls, but not as many. I would like to add to the list all charities and solicitors of any kind. I prefer that they send us mail requests, limited to one per year, instead of phone calls. We give all our charity donations at Christmas and do not need all the notices we get.

Sincerely,
Gloria Tillmann